

COMMUNITY

Friendsview Retirement Community values each resident, staff member, and board member as a full member of our community acknowledging the light of Christ in each person.

All are invited to participate according to their ability and interests in enriching activities and services that contribute to vibrant and meaningful community life.

